

Let Viviani show you California Style

Exquisite events with extraordinary attention to detail are the hallmark of Viviani, Inc. With over 100 years of combined experience, Viviani, Inc. is one of the most respected destination management companies serving the Wine Country, San Francisco, Carmel/Monterey and Santa Barbara for the past 27 years. We specialize in planning comprehensive events, corporate and incentive programs, teambuilding activities, executive retreats, individual travel and exclusive adventure travel.

Our network of contacts and connections for event planning and production are unparalleled in the industry. As we approach our third successful decade, Viviani, Inc. focuses on setting even higher standards of excellence in service. We continue to build upon our personal and professional relationships with the regions' top resorts, renowned chefs, exclusive wineries, winemakers, educators and entertainers; relationships that have allowed us to consistently deliver our clients the most unforgettable events and memorable experiences in the country.

An industry leader, Viviani, Inc serves discriminating clientele and travelers to California. The more active your imagination, the more you need Viviani, Inc. - from private dinners with winemakers to the hottest spots to dine in San Francisco - we know the Wine Country and Bay Area and all the ways to discover it.

Our many years of exceeding the high expectations of our clients enable us to consistently provide the finest quality, fully-customized experiences. Accessing our exclusive entry to the Wine Country's abundant venues and experiences, we educate the novice or challenge the most discriminating connoisseur.
